

PATRIZIO MAZZOLA – PIANO

Patrizio Mazzola was born close to Genua, Italy. He received his musical education under Hubert Harry at the Lucerne conservatory, where he earned the Teacher's and Artist's Diplomas with honors. In addition, he was awarded the Edwin Fischer Memorial prize as well as the Art-Recognition prize of the City of Lucerne.

During his career Patrizio Mazzola has developed a wide repertoire, and next to his teaching activities at the Music academies of Berne and Lucerne he constantly performs as a soloist. He has appeared often at the Lucerne Festival and has collaborated regularly with diverse orchestras and conductors such as Rudolf Baumgartner, Jean-Luc Darbellay, Achim Fiedler, Howard Griffiths, Eduard Muri, Paul Sacher and Kaspar Zehnder. He has many CD recordings, including the 24 Preludes of Rachmaninoff and the 27 Etudes of Chopin.
